Re: United States v. Christopher Barret
Cr. No. 10-809 (S-2) (KAM)

Dear Judge Matsumoto:

I represent Christopher Barret and recently reviewed an ECF filing that referred to a proposed adjournment of the trial date to January 17, 2012 from January 9, 2012. Under no circumstances can I agree to that adjournment. The reasons for my opposing the adjournment include:

1. I am scheduled to begin United States v. Marcus Maragh Cr-No. 11-155(ARR) in the EDNY before Judge Ross on January 23, 2012;
2. I am scheduled to begin United States v. Bonnie Francis 09-cr-00012-RWT-1 on February 14, 2012 before Judge Roger Titus in the United States District Court District of Maryland, located in Greenbelt, MD;
3. On February 2, 2012 I am flying to Ft. Lauderdale, FL to meet my wife and then visit with my sister and other members of my family;
4. As you are aware on November 10, 2011 Mr. Barret vehemently objected to any further adjournments of his case. That he's been incarcerated for more than a year has no doubt contributed towards those feelings.

Respectfully,

/S/

Jack G. Goldberg,
